PEACE. (Pat. 591) Each $2.50, 3 for $6.60, doz. $26.40 (All-America Rose Selections Award, 1946.) One of the best and most beautiful of roses. It is a vigorous, healthy grower with shining dark green foliage. The flower passes through a dawn-like range of colors, from yellow buds picoteed cerise to alabaster blooms flushed pink. Very large and long lasting, with broad petals and high-pointed center, and carried on a strong, straight stem.

SUZON LOTTHE (Pat. 934)

Each $2.50, 3 for $6.60, doz. $26.40

A beautifully formed bud and flower, with a pearl-like sheen and texture. Delightful fragrance. The peach-colored bud has a high center; outer petals slowly roll back to show their pearl-pink tints flushed with deeper pink toward the outer edges. A double bloom with 60 petals, arranged in high-centered form. Large, dark foliage on a very vigorous plant. Blooms freely.

SUZON LOTTHE

HAPPINESS. (Pat. 911)

Each $2.50, 3 for $6.60, doz. $26.40

A brilliant red rose with unusually firm, heavy petals. A coppery sheen contributes to the beauty of the flaming color. As they get older, the flowers become crimson-carmine but never a disagreeable bluish tone. Distinctive in form, with the outer petals curling to points about the solid center. Very large, with 35 to 40 petals. Upright and vigorous in growth, making a very fine garden rose when well established.
